Small Frye: Storytelling + Art
Winter 2020 Book List

Children ages three to five years old and their caregivers are invited to join us for an hour of storytelling and art-making the first Friday of every month from 10:30 to 11:30 am! Seattle Children’s Theatre teaching artists dramatically weave together an imaginative narrative in an interactive book reading. Then join a Frye art educator in the Studio to sculpt, draw, collage, print, or paint a work of art that makes a connection with an element from the book or the exhibitions on view.

2020 marks the 10th year anniversary of Small Frye! We are bringing back some of our favorite books, including classic children’s stories and contemporary favorites inspired by our current and upcoming exhibitions, including Dress Codes: Ellen Lesperance and Diane Simpson, Subspontaneous: Francesca Lohmann and Rob Rhee, and Rebecca Brewer: Natural Horror. Stay tuned for more book selections!

January 3
Jennie’s Hat
By Ezra Jack Keats

February 7
The Snowy Day
By Ezra Jack Keats

March 6
Shh! We Have a Plan
By Chris Haughton