

CLIMATE ACTION RESOURCE GUIDE

Agnieszka Polska: Love Bite explores distressing and complex themes including climate change and mass extinction. However, there are many ways that individuals and groups can get involved, take action, and promote hope for a better future. Below is a select list of international, national, and local resources that can connect you with organizations working to find creative solutions to prevent climate change.

The Climate Reality Project

Educate yourself with Climate 101, and explore tools for further action.

United Nations Climate Neutral Now

Learn how to take steps to help achieve a climate neutral world by mid-century, as enshrined in the Paris Agreement.

Environmental Defense Fund

Resources and suggested ways to help compiled by the EDF.

Indigenous Environmental Network

Support a grassroots indigenous network dedicated to environmental and economic justice, education, and empowerment.

Puget Sound Energy Carbon Balance Program

Puget Sound Energy customers can purchase third-party verified carbon offsets from local projects that work to reduce or capture greenhouse gases.

Seattle City Light Renewable Energy

Learn about how to support innovative local programs that promote sustainable, clean energy use.

Please note, links do not indicate endorsement by the Frye Art Museum.

Image: Agnieszka Polska. What the Sun Has Seen (still), 2017. Digital video (color, sound); 7:16 min.
Courtesy of the artist and Overduin & Co., Los Angeles.

FRYE
ART MUSEUM